PUPPY DOG (3)

KILLARY'S GRAND VENTURE WITH VANDERS AND ROMAUNT (IMP USA) NAF TAF, I really fell for this youngster for his sheer quality and fabulous outline. He has the very best of shoulders, probably the best of all the dogs that I judged here today. I liked his head shape and make, and in particular his tight and dark, expressive eyes. He has good bone, enough depth for his age, which in some of the more mature dogs was sadly lacking, and once he fills his frame will trouble the best. A touch raw and a trifle un-co-ordinated, once he got going his sheer presence and style commanded this win and I was also pleased to award him Res Best Dog too. BP & RBD.

RUSHTASHA GOLDEN RAPPER. A stronger head and lighter eye than the winner, but he is well-off for bone, good for ribbing and depth too, if not quite the shoulder placement of the winner, nor as accurate at the rear. Another with time on his side, a good prospect.

LAOIREBAY MIDNIGHT DRIFTER

POST GRAD DOG (2)

ROANJORA CASTELAO, I felt that this juvenile fitted the standard very well. Broad head, good stop, correctly placed ears, enough slope to pastern, straight front, firm in condition and showed some good reach and drive. He is accurate coming and going, lovely and clean from hock to toe, just needs to fill out in fore-chest and drop a touch to complete the picture. Best Dog and BOB.

COURTDOWN FAME AND FORTUNE, a really lovely headed dog with a dark expressive eye. Correct straight front, adequate bone, just not quite the shoulders or rear accuracy of the winner, another who needs more depth to his brisket.

OPEN DOG (3,1)

RUSTASHA RHAPSODY IN RED, two totally differing types here. This winner scored in depth of fore-chest and length and angle of upper arm, he is well-ribbed, with good weight coverage and much freer action. He was just throwing his front badly coming back towards me which cost him in the challenge.

ROANJORA PINOTAGE ShCM, different in head type, with a lot of stop. This boy was not in the same hard condition as the winner and was lacking in depth, and although straighter in front action, not as accurate behind or as free in profile as the winner.

POST GRAD BITCH (4)

VANDERS CRIMSOIN VELVET, on first inspection, not my immediate winner, as she appeared a little stuffy through the neck and shoulders, however, on closer examination she had the depth, body and condition and a lovely true action coming and going with perfect tight feet, which took her to win this class.

ROANJORA TSARINE TZARINA, flowing outline on the stack and in profile action, however, not in the fit condition of the winner, nor nearly so accurate in front action today. She does score very much in head-piece and expression.

DALRIACH SILVER TASSIE

OPEN BITCH (6,3)

ROANJORA CHIANTI JW, headed a difficult class to judge as this winner although scoring in head and outline, she lacked the depth of fore-chest that I was looking for. Her shoulders are well-placed and she moved true enough to top this class.

RUSHTASHA ROSE KIM, I liked the femininity of this bitch. She is good for depth and is well-ribbed, just not quite the shoulders or flowing outline in action of the winner. Close up. Res Best Bitch.
