1st: MARTIN, Mr Stuart & Mrs Mandy Martin & Miss N GREEN, Rhoswendale Game Is On Again For Vizaset (imp Fin). What a very good young dog this is and I see now that he is by the dog ticket winner; he has many of his attributes. His head is balanced and broad in proportion to his body, has a good stop and well set ears. His neck is strong and he has terrific front angulation. Plenty of heart and lung room, depth of chest and powerful quarters. He covers plenty of ground on the move and has great forward reach. I liked him a lot and thought he could be up for top honours but in the challenge he looked what he is; a very promising young dog.

1st: Mrs Emma Holgate, Hodgehall Don't Stop Me Now With Rogansrock. A rangier dog and he could use more bend of stifle but he has a good length and return of upper arm and strong, oval bone. He is a bit upright in pastern but has close knit feet. His shoulders are well laid back but he is a bit long and lean in loin. His head is handsome and he has a lovely soft expression. His coat is finely textured and a lovely pearl white with solid red patches. Moves easily.

1st: Mr Robert Mapletoft, Roanjora Tanqueray. His head is handsome although a bit long and lean, clean muzzle. Well set ears, strong neck, level topline. A very happy lad but giving his handler a hard time on the move.

1st: Mrs J Tait, Sh Ch Talintyre Winter Shadow. A cracking dog who presents a very good shape when stacked and moving. His head is balanced with a good stop, strong muzzle, domed skull, correct ear set, dark round eyes with a melting expression. Slightly arched neck, well laid shoulders, good length and return of upper arm, deep chest with plenty of fill in front. Level back, good ribbing, strong loin, very powerful quarters, well bent stifles and neat feet. He wears a well feathered silky, pearl white coat that has clear islands of red. Covers plenty of ground with his long, easy stride. CC.

2nd: Mrs A Tattersall, Mr J & Mrs D Jones, Carrick Shadow Dog With Alanea (Imp Pol). A shorter coupled dog looking very athletic and powerful. He is full of breed type and has such well sprung ribs. Well angulated both ends, his quarters are wide and powerful and he moves very well.

3rd: Mr M & Mrs W Taylor, Laoirebay Monte Carlo

1st: Miss N Green, Sh Ch Zendarric Heart Shaped Box With Vizaset. He is athletic, strong and powerful in appearance and maintains his shape on the move. He has great front angulation with plenty of dog in front, deep chest, well sprung ribs, wide muscular loin and such very well muscled quarters. I love his handsome head with its rather grave expression and excellent chiselling. His coat is fine and silky to the touch and has clear solid red patches on a pearl white background. His footfall is precise and he covers plenty of ground.

RCC.

2nd: GARDNER, Miss T Sh Ch Alanea Game Reserve With Danwish. Another super dog who I like very much, I would just like a tad more length to his body. He has substance and style, a wonderful well balanced head without a hint of an occiput, and motors round the ring with a lashing tail.

1st: Mrs A Bloxham, Alanea Emerald. Full of breed type, she is athletic in outlook with sinewy oval bone, a level topline, good front angulation, big ribs, wide quarters with well bent stifles and moves well. Her head is very pretty and she has a very kind eye. Displays a typical happy and good natured temperament. Her pearl white coat has rather a lot of flecking but it is of good texture with solid red patches. BPIB.

2nd: Miss B Ponsford, Clonaghadoo Felicity lkc. Very raw and leggy. 3rd: Miss K Webber Clonaghadoo Fantasia (ikc)

1st: Mr J & Mrs D Jones, Talintyre Fomhar Thyme Via Berryessa. A very nice bitch who has substance and strong bone, slightly arched neck, well laid shoulders, level topline, strong loin, wide quarters and good second thigh development. She was a little flat footed today. Her head is beautiful with such a soft expression. She was a bit untidy in front movement but in profile she has a long stride and good forward reach. I loved her lashing tail.

1st: Mrs A Tattersall, Alanea Silhouette. What a beauty! Her head is gorgeous with the most exquisite expression and finishes with a fairly square clean muzzle. She presents a strong, balanced outline, has big ribs and plenty of depth, strong quarters, hocks well let down and the best lashing tail on the move.

Beautifully presented to take the RCC.

2nd: Mrs S Hutchinson, Laoirebay Drifting Breeze. She has a pretty head, decent ribbing and is in fit hard condition with terrific second thigh development. Sadly she was not cooperating with her handler today but moved well enough.

OB (3 Entries) Abs: 1

1st: Miss T Gardner, Sh Ch Charnborough Charisma Of Danwish JW. Here is a bitch at the top of her game, confident, full of breed type, terrifically made all through, stunning in outline, carrying a beautiful coat of pearl white with red patches and who moves like a train. Her topline never faltered; she could have been on rails. All this is topped off with a beautifully chiselled head and a melting, quizzical expression. She has an air of arrogance about her and looks round as if to ask 'who's second?'. These words are translated from my notes which simply say 'Everything'. CC and BOB.

2nd: Mrs S Hutchinson, Siorrudh Red Velvet. A taller girl who impressed with her big ribs and plentiful heart and lung room. Well angulated both ends but lacks a bit of crest in her neck. Very pretty head with a strong muzzle and well placed ears. Moved well.

It is so hard judging veterans and these two certainly brought tears to my eyes. I loved them both. They both present strong outlines, are athletic in appearance, have well sprung ribs and deep chests. Both have lovely heads but I felt the winner had a slightly better stop and better feet. Easy movers with effortless drive.

1st: Mr T Sherratt & Mrs M Blackwell Sherratt, Ch Alanea Holly Fern At Charnborough SGWS. I see she is the dam of the bitch ticket winner.

2nd: Mrs E Walker, Sh Ch Zendarric It's A Kind Of Magic Within Wroxham.

2nd: Miss K Webber, Clonaghadoo Fantasia (ikc). Very similar to the winner but needs more confidence.
