My sincere thank you to the committee of GBAS for inviting me to this smoothly run and very well-organized show. It was a sheer pleasure to be back judging in Scotland and I thoroughly enjoyed my entry. I would like to thank the exhibitors for sportingly accepting my decisions and to my efficient ring stewards who made my day very pleasant indeed.

1st: 256 MARTIN, Mr Stuart J & MARTIN, Mrs Mandy & GREEN, M Rhowendale Game Is On Again For Vizsaset (imp Fin)

Most attractive in great condition and has all the required breed points. Beautiful head and expression, Rechy neck set on good front assembly, good bone, excellent spring of rib and depth of body, the best of topline, powerful well angulated rear, moved with good drive, lovely coat and well presented. R-CC

2nd: 261 TAIT, Mrs J Talintyre Fomhar Reiver

Gorgeous head and expression, beautiful eyes, very good neck, adequate front construction, nice bone, good body, would prefer a firmer topline, nice rear, movement a little restricted maybe because of the floor. Nice coat
